C.A.T.C. NEWS

Summer 2023 NEWSLETTER

Arthur Herzog

Hello everyone,

This past June, we were fortunate enough to put together a room trading show and cookout in Anderson, South Carolina. Thanks to Brian Gerhart and his family for putting this show together. It was a great success. The hotel was nice, and we will be having a Spring Show again next year at the same place.

We are presently working on the Savannah Classic, coming up this November, with the FATC. If you have not booked your room yet, please don't wait. It will sell out, I promise you.

These bobbers were purchased from an estate in Monroe, Michigan from a family member. It was explained that the bobbers hung in the Bodette Marine Supply Store in Toledo, OH. They came directly to them from the estate of Ed and Rose Bodette after Ed's death in 1994.

July 2023

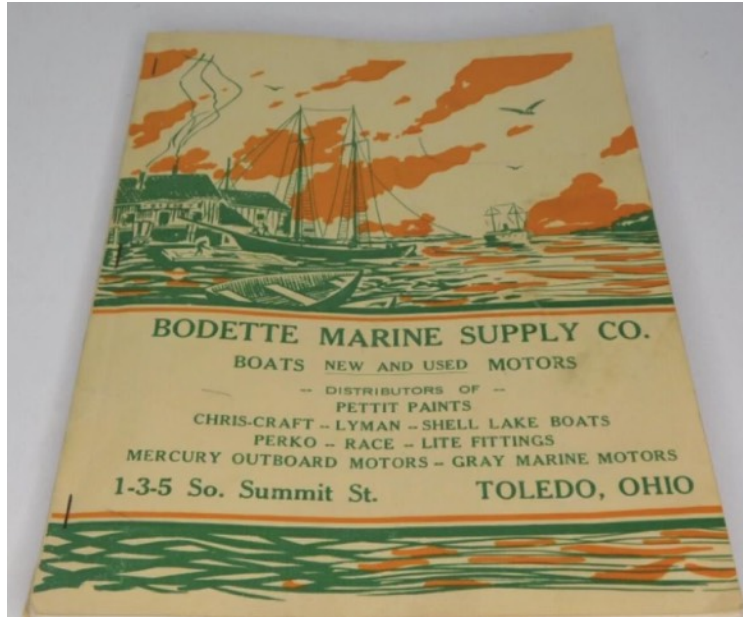

Edward Bodette was born in 1913 and opened Bodette Marine Supply in 1939. His grandfather (also Edward Bodette) was Toledo Harbor Master, and owner of Edward Bodette & Sons, a marine supply business. They dealt in everything from boats to tackle. Young Edward was carrying on the family business. The shop operated at least to the 1970s, possibly longer. According to the family, it was a shop that local fisherman congregated at to discuss the best ways to fish on the river, western Lake Erie up to the Detroit River. Most of their customers, by the mid 1950s on, were mostly walleye fishermen. Before that, it was Sturgeon, dip netting, and everything in between. You will be able to view these in November at the upcoming Savannah Classic show.

From the Bowling Green Univ. archives. A view of 1 South Summit Street on the Maumee River, the 1939 location of Bodette Marine.

They published catalogs and advertised themselves as a full stop shop for the leisure boater and the serious fisherman.

July 2023

The club would like to send our condolences to Jack Gallagher on the passing of his wife Doris (Dobby) Gallagher on June 24 2023. Dobby would always be at the Lures show with Jack and was a big part of the success of our shows!!

A Time to Remember

Sometimes something makes you stop and think about old times. One for me was the passing of Jack Gallagher's wife, Dobby. It started me thinking of the CATC shows years ago at the old Springmaid Hotel in Myrtle Beach. There they would be, the wives of members. The ladies would be seated together, talking or watching tables, as the guys shopped and told big stories about things they had found or the big fish that got away. They were at every show, with smiling faces. Even though I can not recall all of their names, I can still see them in my memories of the good times at the CATC shows
